1. These regulations may be cited as 'The Defence Regulations, 1917.'

2. (1) A person coming from or intending to proceed to any place out of the Colony and Protectorate as a passenger shall not, without the special permission of the Governor, land or embark at any port in the Colony or Protectorate unless he has in his possession and has submitted for the inspection of the officer appointed by the Governor for that purpose a valid passport issued to him not more than two years previously, by or on behalf of the Government of the country of which he is a subject or a citizen, or in the case of a person coming from a place outside the Colony and Protectorate, either such a passport or some other document satisfactorily establishing his nationality and identity and bearing the visa of a Diplomatic or Consular officer of His Majesty authorizing such person to proceed to the Colony or Protectorate.

(3) If any person lands or embarks in contravention of this regulation, or if, where any such special permission to land has been granted by the Governor subject to any conditions, the person to whom it was granted fails to comply with any such condition, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.

3. A British subject shall not embark at any port of the Colony or Protectorate, or attempt to leave the Colony or Protectorate, as a member of the crew of an outward bound neutral ship unless he came to the Colony or Protectorate as a member of the crew of that ship, or unless he has in his possession and has submitted for the inspection of the officer appointed by the Governor for that purpose a valid passport or has obtained the written permission of the Governor, and if he does so, or if, where any such written permission has been granted subject to any conditions, he fails to comply with any such condition, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.

• No. 1176, HOME (MISCELLANEOUS), 15TH NOVEMBER 1917

4. In addition to the other requirements prescribed in these regulations a person other than a British subject who proposes to undertake missionary or educational work in the Colony or Protectorate shall not, without the special permission of the Governor land at any port in the Colony or Protectorate, unless he has first obtained permission to enter the Colony or Protectorate and engage in such work from His Majesty's Diplomatic representative in the country in which he resides.

5. A person convicted of an offence against these regulations by a court of summary jurisdiction shall be liable to be sentenced to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.*

It is added, and without prejudice, to any powers which a court may possess to order the exclusion of the public from any proceedings, if, in the course of proceedings against any person for an offence against these regulations, application is made by the prosecution, in the public interest, that all or any portion of the public shall be excluded during any part of the hearing, the Court may make an order to that effect, but the passing of sentence shall in any case take place in public.

The Gambia Defence Regulations.

[C4223] From the Govt of India, Fort Poll,
No. 1721 G. D. 23.10.17.

The regulations are analogous to the Defence of India (Passport) Rules, 1916 and contain, in addition, a provision corresponding to the requirement imposed on ^{foreign} missionaries desirous of undertaking missionary or educational work in India to take the permission of Govt before they land in India.

3 No action is necessary on the papers so far as this department is concerned. The matter is, however, one of general interest and the case may be transferred to the Home (Mis) Dept who may, perhaps, desire to inform the public of these regulations.
