Ref No. 1347
AIR 1917

Station Salem, Dated the 14th November 1917. 191

From (Name) E. W. Leigh, Esquire, I.C.S.,

(Designation) District Magistrate of Salem.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME (Miscellaneous) Department.

Sir,

P. Subramania Chetti, a resident of Sholapadi Subramania Chetti Street, Shevapet, Salem, applies for the issue of a passport to enable him to proceed to Epen an inland town in Federated Malay States where his co-partner O. T. Subramania Chetti owns a firm, opened in 1914, and is carrying on trade in clothes.

2. His partner who had hitherto been looking after the business of the firm is now desirous of going over to Salem to perform the marriage of his daughters and to attend to certain domestic affairs. In order to enable him to do this, the petitioner applies for a passport to proceed to the place of business and be in charge of the firm during his partners' absence. He states

3. The Village Munsiff states that the petitioner wants to go to Malay States in order to carry on trade in clothes and the local Sub-Magistrate has no objection to the issue of a passport.

4. The prescribed fee of one Rupee has been collected and submitted into Treasury, and duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant are also enclosed.

5. In these circumstances, I have the honour to recommend the issue of a passport to the applicant.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. Subramanian

for District Magistrate.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

(a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.

(b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

(a) Natural-born British Subjects.

(b) Wives and widows of such persons.

(c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.

(d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad: such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.
