Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith an application from one Ramadas Muniswami Naidu of Rangampet Chendra-giri Taluk of this District for a passport to go to Natal with his wife.

2. A fee of Rs2-0-0 has been credited to the Treasury on 11-9-1917. Apparently one rupee is sufficient as a separate passport is not required for the wife. I propose to refund one rupee.

3. Two unmounted photographs of the applicant and his wife are also sent herewith.

4. The applicant is in a hurry and wishes to go by the next steamer.

There has already been some delay owing to the

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

- (a) Natural-born British Subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad: such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

Passport

From the S. H., Ch. Hon 3 22. 11. 17)

The Commissioner of Police pointed out in Mr. Paris' case that the immigration law of South Africa requires that immigrants should be of good character and health, able to read and write an European language, and have some means of earning their livelihood. vide Ind. no. 3815-1 of 21. 11. 17. The present applicant's profession is stated to be "fruit trade in Natal". Possibly he has been in Natal before, and is merely returning there. Section 4 of the Immigration Act, 22 of 1913 of South Africa would appear to apply only to persons who are new immigrants in the Colony. The General Passport Regulations in G.O. 1460 of 8. 6. 15 contain no provision regarding the Immigration Laws of South Africa, nor are there any orders from the Govt. on the subject recorded in this dept. Passports have been granted to Indians travelling to South Africa, vide G.O. nos. 1148 of 8. 11. 17,
