His Excellency the Governor of Madras.

Petition of the Manager of the Samasthanam of Sri Sringeri

Jagadguru Sankaracharya, resident of Avani, otherwise called Avanti Kshetr/amu, Mulubagalu taluk, Kolar district, Mysore State.

41
In pursu^{it} of your Excellency's order No.1344, dated the 14th July 1916, the Police station officer and two constables in each village, taluk, and district escort Sri Jagadguru Sankaracharya and his staff on tour from ~~time to~~ ^{the} time of his entrance ~~arrived~~ into their station limits until he enters into another station limits.

The number of escorts is increased by two armed men when his devotees commemorate any festival in his honour and when he makes journey at night through a forest. This has been the practice obtaining in Madras and Mysore, as can be ascertained from the diaries and reports

Though the same practice may be noticed to be obtaining in North Arcot, Vellore and Salem districts, the District Superintendent of North Arcot reduced the number of these escorts. We brought this fact to the notice of the Inspector-General of Police. This practice not being given effect to, we are put to inconvenience. I therefore pray that Your Excellency will be so kind as to direct the Inspector-General of Police to increase the number of escorts for the protection of our property as usual and to favour me with a copy of your Excellency's orders.

the

From (Name) P.L. Moore, Esquire, C.I.E., I.C.S., (Designation) Inspector-General of Police.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Home (Miscellaneous) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to reply to Home (Miscellaneous) endorsement No. 3773-1, dated the 17th November 1917, forwarding for remarks a petition from the Manager, Avani Mutt, Kolar district.

2. What the manager wants is that the police shall provide free of charge what amounts to a permanent private guard of 1 Sub Inspector and two constables. I do not think this is either desirable or in any way necessary, nor do I consider that such is contemplated in the order quoted by the manager.

Superintendents of Police have been directed to afford such assistance as may be necessary, but have been informed that if a permanent escort or guard is asked for it should be supplied only on payment of the usual charges.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

J. F. W. Wilson

for Insp.-Genl. of Police.

Regr.

It was not the intention of the Govt to provide the Jagad-guru with a permanent police escort free of charge. (P 4 of notes to Lto 1344. of 14. 7. 16). Even in Mysore, he is provided with a place of safety and supplied with necessaries during tour on his paying for the same. It does not seem necessary to provide him with a permanent escort in this Presidency free of charge. A draft order is subd.
