Station Salem, Dated the 28th November 1917.

From (Name) E. W. Leigh Esquire, I.C.S.,
(Designation) District Magistrate of Salem.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras
Home (Miscellaneous) Department.

Sir,

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O.1010, dated 20th August 1917, I have the honour to transmit a copy of report 2756-D, dated 8th November 1917 of the Tahsildar Magistrate, Tiruchengodu and to state that the amount of Rs.357-14-1 on receipt will be delivered to the five individuals mentioned in paragraph 5 of the Tahsildar's report, who are reported to be the proper heirs of the deceased.

I have the honour to be,
sir,
Your most obedient servant,

K. Palaniam
for District Magistrate.

Enclosure:

COPY of Tahsildar Magistrate's report.

With reference to your endorsement No.1033-D.M.R, dated 30-8-17 on a on a copy of G.O.No.1010-Home/Mis., dated 20-8-17 I beg to submit the following report:

2. Muttusami Padayachi son of Alaga Padayachi the deceased emigrant is ascertained to have been a resident of Tiruchengodu town. The records of the enquiry held by me and enclosed herein show that he was unmarried when he left this station. He had only two sisters Pavayi and Ramayi and no brothers. Of the two sisters Pavayi died before ever she was married and the other sister also died leaving five sons and a daughter i.e., Pachan Padayachi, Muttu alias Ramasami Padayachi, Poovayi Ari Padayachi, Muttan Padayachi and Kolandan Padayachi. Thus these six individuals are the deceased emigrant's own sister's issues.

3. Of these 6 persons Poovayi is reported to be residing with some paramour and she cannot be therefore considered to be entitled to any share of the property of the deceased emigrant.

4. Of the five sons the eldest Pachan Padayachi is reported to have gone to Urigam and other places and no body knows whether he is alive or not. He had no issues when he left the place and his wife Kattayi has been under the support of his other brothers living here in a house said to have been owned by the deceased emigrant himself. The second brother Muttu alias Ramasami Padayachi is reported to have died nearly 3 years back without any issues. His widow Chudamani who had ever since his death been under the support of the other brothers has for the past nearly five or six months been living separately by coolly on account of some petty domestic quarrels. The brothers admit this. This woman also stated that she is responsible for the discharge of some debts common to the whole family.

5. It is thus seen that these two women Kattayi and Chudamani and the brothers Ari Padayachi, Muttan Padayachi and Kolanda Padayachi are the proper surviving heirs of the deceased emigrant Muttusami Padayachi. I beg to recommend therefore that the amount left by him may be disbursed to these persons after getting them to execute a bond of indemnity on proper stamp paper as required by the Civil Account Code.

6. The entire records of enquiry are enclosed with a list. One Tumburan Padayachi son of Pusari Taiyan Padayachi of Tiruchengodu is a man of means and of the applicant's caste and he is willing to stand as surety.

7. After the publication of the G.O.the three brothers appeared as heirs and presented a petition on which enquiry was made and later on the two women came and all of them agree.
