End.

The Govt. Consider that the reasons advanced by Mr. R. M. Logan are not of such exceptional urgency as to justify the grant of permission to Mrs. Logan to enable her to proceed to England at the present time.

From the D. M., Trincomopoly 8 10-11-17 Mr. Logan is past 50 years of age, as he was born on the 5th Decr. 1867.
He is therefore not liable to military duty in India, and may be granted a passport to England. He requests that his wife may be permitted to accompany him as their two daughters aged 12 and 10 were placed in charge of a lady who is in no way related to them, and his wife's presence is necessary as the time has come when measures for the children's further and higher education must be taken. Please see the case of Mrs. D. who was allowed to proceed as she had family of tender years in England, whose present home was about to be broken up and who had no relatives or friends where they could be housed. In the present case, though the children are of tender years left in the care of a lady who is not related to them, it is not contended that their home is about to be broken up. Besides, Mr. Logan himself will probably be going to can go to England, and till in that case be able to arrange for the housing and education of the children.

Reference is also solicited to Encl. 3610-18 9-11-17, in which Govt. refused to grant a passport to Mrs. Leigh Smith under conditions almost similar to the present Case.

15-11-17

Mr. Logan doesn't say why he is going to England - i.e. it is not known whether or not he must go in any case. If it is a case of necessity with him or the children at home it wd. seem very hard if such must be left in India. I am not clear how the rules apply to such a case.
