To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Sir,

I beg to request that all Government orders and publications which are supplied free to the editors of other papers may also be sent to the "Desabakhthan" which is issued as a daily paper from to-day. It is our aim to give as much information as possible to the masses on subjects like Agriculture, Sanitation, and Co-Operation, and I request that the heads of these departments may be requested to send, specially those orders which are generally issued for the information of the masses.

Praying that the necessary orders may be issued soon,

I have the honour to remain,

From the Editor, Desabaktam, Madras d 7.12.17.

For the w.s

Editors' Table privileges are granted only to such papers as have an established circulation and are moderate in tone. The paper in question has been started only just now and it can hardly be said to have an established status. Some time must elapse before it acquires a status & commands an established circulation. The request of the Editor may therefore be negatived he being left to come up later on after the paper has established its status. A draft order is submitted. For a precedent please see G.O. 1231 Pub d the 25.9.14.
