From (Name) J.R. Huggins Esq., I.C.S.,

(Designation) District Magistrate.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Miscellaneous) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward an application from D. Rajagopala Acharya, son of M.R. Ry. V.K. Desikachariyar, retired Sub Judge, for a passport to go to Australia via Singapore. He states that he goes to Sydney to see his friends Mr. C.W. Leadbeater and Dr. Locke at 7, Raymond Road, Neutral Bay, and to derive the advantages of foreign travel. He states he is a student but so far as the purpose of the journey is concerned he can hardly be described as a student. As a "tourist traveller", however, I recommend the grant of a passport to him.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

(a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.

(b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

(a) Natural-born British Subjects.

(b) Wives and widows of such persons.

(c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.

(d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad: such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

Passport to Australia

From the D^r magte, Tanjore no. 5738 of 15.12.17

Re.

The case under consideration is that of an Indian requiring a passport to proceed to Australia. The application is recommended by the D^r magte.

Rule 9 of the Subsidiary rules for the issue of passports promulgated with G.O.'s letter no. 2230 G.O., 21.11.1911 (in G.O. no. 218 Pubd 18.2.1912) governs the case. Reference is however solicited to the instructions of the G.O. printed in G.O. no. 1849 Pubd 18.12.1915. in regard to the grant of passports to Indians proceeding to the Far East. It is not clear if "Far East" includes Australia. The question whether the Subsidiary rule 9 referred to above was in force after the issue of the revised passport rules issued with G.O.'s letter no. 1448 G.O. of 25.8.1915 was specifically referred to India and that Govt. have stated!

The rule was in force in as much as it was not inconsistent with the revised rules issued in ^{August} 1915.

The applicant is respectably connected and is stated to be a tourist traveller; and the D. Magistrate Tanjore recommends the grant of a passport to him. But the case has no precedent to be guided by, no application ^{for a passport to Australia} from an Indian of applicant's status etc. have been received subsequent to the new rules. If a passport may be granted a draft order to a passport agent?

Applicant may be classed as a Tourist traveller under Rule 9. I do not think Australia can possibly be included in the Far East - even in the wide sense given by the C.E. at D. Passport may be granted.

Under ordinary circumstances
I would have issued the passport.

But with reference to the recent doings of the Theosophical Society, I request orders whether a passport may be issued.

I do not see any serious objection.
