We have three children in England, 7, 11 & 13 years of age respectively and owing to the recent death of a relative the establishment there, as it is to be broken up in July, and it is essential that we should be able to get to England to make a home for them before that time. My brother-in-law who is due back in India shortly has charge of them and it is not possible to make any other arrangement whatever except for us to go home and obviously I cannot be expected to do this myself. I am also even prospect of being at once employed on Munition work

I have the honour to remain

Passport.

(Lt. 100829) From G. Vibert Esq., Madras 8 7.3.17

Mr. G. Vibert is 57 years old. There seems no objection to granting him a passport to England. It is however for orders whether the reasons advanced ~~will~~ are sufficient to justify the grant of a passport to Mrs. Vibert to proceed to England. Submitted that the remarks of the Public Dept. may first be obtained n.o.

For a similar case please see Not the papers in ~~the~~ endorsement 16.3.17 No 678-2 & 5.3.17. The Govt in that case considered that the reasons adduced by Mr. P.C. Mole were not sufficient to justify the permission being granted to Mrs. Mole for proceeding to England. vide Encl. No 592-2 & 26.2.17 on p 4 of file T.

him a passport. In regard to Mrs Vibert, her case seems to be somewhat similar to that of Mrs. D cited by the Govt. of Bombay in their letter recorded in G.O. 216 Pub 827-2-17. Submitted for orders whether she may be allowed to go.

The case seems doubtful as regards Mr Vibert. I cannot help thinking that case D referred to in the note is the case of a widow. It would no doubt be much better if Mr Vibert could go home to arrange for the children, as well as his husband, but Mr Vibert is content that it is difficult for him to make the arrangements and not seem convincing.

As Mr Vibert is leaving India in retirement, Mrs Vibert may accompany him.
