On a requisition from the Director Telegraph Engineering Bombay, he was supplied with a copy of the Hindustani extract of the Govt. Servants' Conduct Rules. He now requests that copies of the Vernacular extracts of the Rules as detailed in the margin may be supplied to him. The S.G. Press. States that all the copies are available for supply.

It has been ordered in G.O. No 694 Pub d 10.4.1916 that Heads of Dept requiring copies of the compilation may apply to the S.G. Press direct. But the Director Telegraph Engineering, is not an office subordinate to the local Govt & it is not known whether the copies asked for, may be supplied to him free of cost. The file may be sent to the Home (Mis) Dept for consideration & issue of orders.

Please see the Statement of the total number of copies of the vernacular editions of the Govt. Servants' Conduct rules printed, distributed and in stock furnished by the Supdt., Govt. Press, at flag (X). The following table shows at a glance the number of copies asked for by the Director, Telegraph Engineering and the number in stock at the Press.

No. of Copies asked for		No. in stock
Tamil	220	385
Telugu	120	1676
Malayalam	100	108
Hindustani	470	91

It will be seen that there are only a very few copies of the Hindustani edition. The stock of the Tamil and Malayalam copies is very limited, so that if the request of the Director is complied with there will be only a few copies left.

It does not seem advisable therefore to supply any copies of the Tamil, Malayalam and Hindustani editions unless it is decided to reprint them. It is possible there may be a demand in future for more copies of these editions from the officers subordinate to this Govt. Copies of the Deluge edition required may it is submitted be supplied, as there is an abundant supply of this edition available. The copies are apparently intended for distribution to the public servants of the Telegraph Dept. employed in this presidency. Attention is in this connection solicited to the notes on pages 24-26 of G.O. No. 132 ~~Public~~ Home (H.S.) of the 12th Sept. '16, wherein it was held that in matters relating to subjects depending upon local conditions, the Govt. Servants Conduct rules with the local rulings issued by this Govt. are applicable to Govt. Servants belonging to the Imperial Service also. The required number of copies of the Deluge edition may it is submitted be accordingly supplied to the Director.

Do we usually supply paper produced by this Govt. to officers and subordinates to this Govt. in appreciable quantities? If not, will not the present be a good opportunity in the necessity to provide for the use of paper printed & the change added to the telegraph dept.
