H.C. No. 78/1716

Station Ootacamund, Dated the 27th April 1917

From (Name) A. R. CUMMING Esq., I.C.S.
(Designation) District Magistrate, the Nilgiris.

To The Secretary to Government,
Home Department,
Stonemouse Hill.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit for the orders of Government an application from Mrs. Barbara Mascie Taylor wife of a planter in Cachar for a passport to enable her to travel to Colombo.

2. Mrs. Taylor informs me that she understands permission is being given to women to leave Colombo for England by foreign or neutral vessels and she applies for a passport to enable her to travel to Ceylon with the intention of getting it endorsed at Colombo for her proposed voyage to England.

3. Mrs. Taylor has, she informs me, been under the care of the District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Ootacamund and wishes to travel to England in the beginning of May for the benefit of her health. On the first occasion on which she saw me, she proposed to produce a medical certificate, but she has not since done so.

4. I have no information whether the Ceylon Government are issuing passports for ladies to leave Colombo by foreign or neutral vessels, and travel by sea within the danger zone, or whether Government will be prepared to issue passports to ladies resident in India to enable them to proceed to Ceylon under the circumstances stated.

5. The requisite fee of Re. 1/- has been paid.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. M. M. M.
for Dt. Magistrate.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to :—

- (a) Natural-born British Subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad : such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.
