Sir,

I have the honour to enclose my application for a passport to the United Kingdom (England), together with duplicate unmounted photographs of myself, one of which has been verified by endorsement by Mr. B. Swire, Superintendent of Police of Rajamandry, Godavari District, and the fee of Rupee One for said Passport is today being forwarded by Money Order.

I beg to state that my reason for desiring a passport is that I have been in this country 23 years, during which period I have not spent more than two years with my family and since I left England four years ago I have lost one son and my only remaining son is now serving with our forces and is likely to proceed on active service at any moment.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Willie Floyd
