Telugu Shorthand Examination

Approving the proposals of the Inspector-General of Police for the grant of special prizes to police officers in receipt of the special shorthand allowance who attain higher speeds in Telugu shorthand.

READ—the following papers:—

Letter—from P. L. MOORE, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Judicial) Department (through the Accountant-General).

Dated—Madras, the 4th April 1917.

No.—R.C. 537-Aud.

With reference to paragraph 3 of G.O. No. 173, Home (Miscellaneous), dated the 23rd February 1917, I have the honour to recommend that special prizes of the value of Rs. 40, 25 and 15 may be awarded to police officers in receipt of the special shorthand allowance of Rs. 10 who attain higher speeds of 90, 80 and 70 words per minute respectively at the half-yearly examinations to be held at the Provincial Police Training School, Vellore. The prizes will be awarded every half year with reference to the results of the examination to be held that half year. I consider that the maximum number of prizes to be awarded for a half year may be fixed at fifteen, which is the number of special allowances sanctioned in G.O. No. 119, Home (Miscellaneous), dated the 17th September 1916, and which may be taken for the present to be the number of men required in the department for reporting proceedings of public meetings.

I have sanctioned the special shorthand allowance for all the eight sub-inspectors who passed the Telugu shorthand test at 60 words per minute at the last examination and are in the opinion of the special committee qualified to report—vide paragraph 7 of their report embodied in the first of the Government Orders quoted above.

2. The expenditure will be met from the contract grant of the District Superintendents of Police concerned.

II

Endorsement of the Accountant-General, No. T.M. 26-587, dated 17th April 1917.

Forwarded.

2. There is no audit objection to the extra expenditure being met from the source indicated.

H. BHIMASENA RAO,
Deputy Accountant-General.

To the Secretary to Government, Home (Judicial) Department.

Order—No. 461, Home (Miscellaneous), dated 15th May 1917.

The proposals of the Inspector-General of Police for the award of special prizes to police officers in receipt of special shorthand allowance who attain higher speeds in Telugu shorthand are approved.

From the Inspector-General of Police, No. 537, dated 4th April 1917.

From the Accountant-General, No. Tm. 26—587, dated 17th April 1917.

The Government have already agreed to the award of special prizes so that the police officers to whom they are offered may attain higher speeds (vide page 5 of the notes to G.O. No. 173, dated 23rd February 1917). The scale of prizes proposed by the Inspector-General of Police seems to be moderate. As the number of special allowances that the Government have sanctioned is 15, the Inspector-General proposes that the maximum number of special prizes for each half-yearly examination also, may be fixed at 15.

If the proposals of the Inspector-General are to be approved, a draft order is submitted which may be sent to Financial for acceptance.

Please see G.O. No. 173, Home (Miscellaneous), dated 23rd February 1917, paragraph 2 of Financial note, dated 7th February 1917, and the subsequent Home Department notes on pages 4-5 of notes to the same order. The proposal of the Inspector-General of Police to award special prizes, 15 at the most every half year, of the value of Rs. 40, 25 and 15 to police officers in receipt of the special Telugu shorthand allowance of Rs. 10 who attain higher speeds of 90, 80 and 70 words per minute at half-yearly examinations may, it is submitted, be accepted. The annual recurring cost involved in the proposal cannot be estimated with accuracy as it will depend upon the number of candidates placed in each grade of proficiency at the half-yearly examinations. The expenditure is to be met from the contract grant of the District Superintendent of Police concerned.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
