Proposer: Mr. S. Seshagiri Rau
Seconder: Mr. B. Ananta Rau, B.A., B.L.

VIII. Indentured Labour:
This conference views with great alarm the present system of recruiting Indian Labour to the islands as being highly immoral, illegal and unjust and records its opinion that the statement of His Excellency the Viceroy that in the interests of the planting community it would not be possible to stop emigration altogether for at least five more years to come is a grave insult to the national self respect of the Indian community.

Proposer: Mr. J. Krishanayya Garu
Seconder: Mr. P. Adinarayanayya

Seconder: Mr. R. Giri Rau, B.A.,

XI. Forest Grievances:
This conference is of opinion that most of the forest reserves in this division, have neither timber yielding trees nor other useful trees of any kind and that consequently the prohibition from them of goats which are the main wealth of the poor ryots should be removed even if the forests continue to be treated as reserved.

Proposer: Mr. N. Pattabhirama Rau, B.A.
Seconder: Mr. Raghavendrappa, Taluk Board Member.
Supporters: Siddappa, Maddayya, and other ryots.

This conference approves heartily of the most impartial dissenting minute of the Hon'ble Justice Abdur Rahim who has so ably advocated the cause of Indians and stood by their rights and privileges.
