The Director - General of Posts and Telegraphs, Calcutta.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No 1751-T
of the 21st March 1917, informing that the abbreviated address "Agnor" may be used for any "Agent to the Governor" with effect from the 15th April 1917. I am to observe that "Agnor" is obviously an abbreviation of "Agent to the Governor", and not of "Govt.
Agent". ~~It will not thus be a suitable abbreviation for the Govt. Agent, Godavari.~~ While therefore it will be suitable when addressing the Agents to the Governor, Ganjam and Vizagapatam, it will not be a suitable abbreviation for the "Govt. Agent, Godavari".

No 2570-T., dated Calcutta, the 30 April 1917.

Sir,

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No.1089-2 dated 12th April 1917, I am directed to inform you that the term "Agent" cannot be made applicable to all officers of the three districts viz. Ganjam, Godavari and Vizagapatam as proposed by you as it has already been allotted as the abbreviated address for "Agent, Agent and Chief Engineer and Agent and General Manager" of various railways. In the circumstances the abbreviated address "Govent" has been registered for the "Government Agent, Godavari".

For the Superintendent.-

When the fair copy of (G.O. No. 337, Home (Mis), dated the 2nd April 1917) (regarding Telegraphic address of Govt. Agents) was submitted for the Secretary's signature, the Secretary mentioned that he did not approve of the term "Agnor" mentioned in the Director-General's letter as it refers only to the two Agents and not to the Government Agent, Godavari and suggests that a letter may be sent to the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs to change the term "Agnor" to "Agent."

The fair copy has not been signed and the G.O. has not issued.

It will be seen from page 254 of the telegraph guide, ~~that~~ that the term "Agent" is already the abbreviated address of three other Govt. officials:- namely, Agent, Agent and Chief Engineer, and Agent and General Manager. In Letter No. 34 Home (Mis) of 15-1-17, the Govt. wrote to the Director General of Posts & Telegraphs that they ~~had~~ ^{had} no objection to the substitution of a general abbreviated telegraphic address meaning Agent to the Governor with the addition of the name of the office of destination after it. For the three special addressees now in use. For orders ^{in the circumstances} whether a letter may be put up to the Director General suggesting the term 'Agent' in place of the term 'Agnor' proposed.

The note is not clear; what I meant was that a just is obviously an abbreviation of "Agent to the Governor" and not of "Government Agent".

The present term "Govent" might do for all, but I think the suggestion to use the word "Agent" with the district name added would be simple & unambiguous, & applicable to all districts. Please suggest this to S.G.

H-2-30 letter no 1089-2 of 12.4.17. V₃, to adopt the word 'Agent' as a common abbreviated telegraphic address for the Agents of the three districts could not be accepted. It appears from the last sentence of his letter that 'Govant' has been directed to be used for 'Govt. Agent. Godavari', and it is presumed that 'Agnor' will ^{still} represent 'Agent to the Govt.' and next it should be used with reference to the Agents in Gangan and Vizalapatnam. Apparently a common word for ^{all the three Agents} ~~subd. for orders~~ is difficult to coin.

Subd. for orders whether the Agents of the three districts ~~may~~ be informed of the decision or whether the Director Genl. should be ^{again} addressed for a common word for the three Agents.
