Asst. Secy's remarks in the file re the grant of g.c.a. for May 1917.

Please consider whether it is necessary to lay this (Box re g.c.a.) on the E.T.

L.E.R. 18-5-17.

For the Asst. Secy.

Orders sanctioning the grant of g.c.a. to low-paid Govt. servants ^{which prior to September 1908 used to issue in Rev. Dept, and since then are issuing in Finl Dept} always been placed on the Editors' Table - please see for instance S.O. No. 3181 Rev. & 27-12-07, and S.O. 237 Rev. & 27-1-08, and the file of Gov. tagged together and put up below.

The exact circumstances under which these orders have become to be placed on the E.T. are not traceable. It is ~~observed~~ observed that in the "rules for the selection of papers for the Editors' Table" issued in S.O. 362 Home (Mio)

S. 6-4-17, ~~that following of this item~~ appears under 'Class B containing papers of local importance and interest". Class A relates to papers of general importance & interest. Both class A & class B papers are placed on E.T. The only difference being that class B papers are not ^{apparently with reference to their} local importance and interest that these orders have become to be placed on the E.T.

in now directing that these orders need not be placed on the E.T.; and orders are solicited whether the practice of placing these ^(orders) on the E.T. may be discontinued. If so, the case may be sent w.o. to Home (Mis) ^{thru} 25.5.17 deph so that an erratum may be issued to Gp. 362 Home (Mis) 26.4.17. I don't think we need continue to place them in the E.T.
