HOME DEPARTMENT
(Miscellaneous Section).

Sir,

The Siva temple in Tirupapuliyur (Cuddalore N.T.) having been renovated at an enormous cost by the Nattukottai chettis, the Kumbabhishekam or consecration ceremony of the temple has been fixed for the 28th instant. The ceremony being one of special religious importance and of rare occurrence, large numbers of pilgrims are expected to attend it from various and distant places. As the district people have naturally a strong desire also to attend it, I have the honour to request the sanction of Government for treating treating the 28th instant as a general holiday for the district in substitution for the penultimate Saturday of the month which will be a working day instead. The favour of very early orders by wire is requested.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. Rajahadar
