The Secretary Home Department
Government of Madras.

Sir, I have the honour to apply for a passport for my wife, and infant (aged 2 years), to travel by sea to England via the Cape of Good Hope, and to state my reasons for this application.

Mrs. Hudson left her two daughters at St. Mary's School, Swanage, Berkshire, in January 1914, in the care of the Sister Superior who undertook sole charge of, and responsibility for them, during term & holiday time, on the understanding that Mrs. Hudson would return in two years.

Mrs. Hudson has been absent now for three years and a half, and the Sister Superior has urged her to return as soon as possible as she considers that a Mother's care is necessary and is unwilling to take further responsibility.

I have recently received two letters from friends in whom I have every confidence, which point out the urgent necessity for Mrs. Anderson's presence at home as the children are unhappy and badly in need of a mother's influence.
As the ages of our daughters are 14 and 12 respectively we cannot but concur with these opinions.

Another reason for my wishing my wife to be in England is that I intend to remove the children to a cheaper school, as owing to the war, my income has very seriously decreased, and I no longer find it possible to continue the arrangements made for my children's education in pre-war days.

This cannot be done without my wife's presence in England, as we have no relations or friends to whom we could entrust them.

Mrs. Anderson had arranged to sail last October, but was prevented from doing so, owing to my being ill, and postponed her departure until the mail of the 23rd May, when, owing to the prohibition order, she was unable to sail.

These two postponements have upset the school authorities who are distinctly aware of accepting further responsibility; and in the event of them absolutely refusing to do so at any time, there is no one to take charge of, or make arrangements for our children.

This is the only application which has been made for Mrs. Stedman's pasport.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Your obedient Servant.

L. Stedman

Sir,

I have the honour to submit for the orders of Government an application from Mrs. R. Hudson for a passport to travel with her child to England via the Cape of Good Hope.

2. I am not aware of any relaxation of the orders regarding women travelling through the danger zone, but understand from Home (Miscellaneous) Department Endorsement No.
1926-2, dated the 12th June 1917 which Mrs. Hudson has shown to me that her case has already been considered by Government and that Government are prepared to grant the passport applied for. I have not therefore thought it necessary to ascertain from Mrs. Hudson the special grounds
