To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

As we are conducting a Tamil daily 'Dravidan' by name with the Register No. 1279, I have the honour to request you to be kind enough to send us the Fort St. George Gazette and such of those Government papers and notifications as are usually laid on the Editors' Table.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Shaktavakulam
Editor, 'Dravidan'

2. The Tamil Translator reports that the Dravidan discusses politics and comments on a variety of subjects. It invariably supports the Government, and condemns the Home Rule agitation as at present conducted. It professes to be the organ of the non-Brahmans and has a circulation of about 1950.
3. The enclosures to the above memorandum are returned herewith.
