one for the Comenacoe Public Library, one to the Madrasa-i-Azame, and one to the Muhammadan Public Library.
The G.O. Enquired in their letter no 2737 of 18.7.1907 whether this Govt would require more copies of the book either for British officials or others in this Pres and stated that though the price of the book was ^{alittle} reduced, they ~~would~~ ^{would} not be supplied free of cost.
This Govt replied that no more copies were required. (vide correspondence in G.O. 608 Pubd 29.7.07.)

Now that the G.O. are apparently anxious to clear their old stock they intimate that copies are available for distribution free of cost. The D.P.D. has intimated that he would require 8 copies. He has probably included Madrasa-i-Azame also in the list of institutions to be supplied with copies of the book. The Comenacoe Public Library & the Madrasa-i-Azame have got copies already. Submitted that eight copies may be sent for, one for the Secy Library and seven for the other institutions.

Adraft reply to the G.O. is subd.
