land. In 1914 when I made a similar declaration, the Collector asked to send a statement of lands owned by my father. So I sent a statement. But I have no interest in the land belonging to my father, nor shall I inherit any portion of the land. If necessary I shall obtain and forward a declaration to that effect from my father.

The landed property statements are now complete. No remarks seem to be called for on ~~on~~ them. ~~Except~~ Reference is however solicited to the statement of Mr. J. N. Roy, J.C.S. on page 11 C.F. It will be seen that Mr. Roy has purchased certain ^{immovable} property in Bengal during 1916. Under rule 10 of the Govt. Servants' Conduct Rules, a Native of India who is a member of the J.C.S. should obtain Govt. sanction for the acquisition of any immovable property after his entry into Govt. service. Mr. Roy however states that his people owned the lands in question already as permanent lessees, and that he has merely purchased the superior Zamindari interest of one of his cousins. No objection need perhaps be taken to this transaction. The property is not situated in this presidency. The papers may now be recorded.
