the same fact. He has also produced a certified copy of the application to the Registrar, University of Madras, when the applicant appeared for the Matriculation Examination. A statement recorded from his father that M.R. Ry J. Narayana Rao was born on 2nd September 1894 at Marripudy of this district is also submitted to prove that he is a British subject by birth. There is no reason to doubt the genuineness of these documents and they may be accepted as proving the correct age, date of birth and nationality of the applicant.

A communication received from the Provost of the University college, London, and another received from the applicant are enclosed.

N.B.—The fee, rupees twelve, must be handed to the Principal who will pay it either into the Bank of Madras or into one of the local Government Treasuries in the Mofussil. In the case of candidates residing beyond the limits of British Territory, the fee should be paid as follows: in Travancore, to the Resident; in Cochin into the Taluq Treasury; in Mysore, to the Officer-in-charge of His Majesty's Treasury at Bangalore, or any District Treasury; and in Hyderabad, to the Resident. No application will be registered unless the prescribed fee has been paid. The application should reach the Registrar not later than the 20th December preceding the examination. Candidates are particularly requested to note that the fee itself (whether in the form of cash, cheque, currency note or money order) must not on any account be sent to the Registrar. The fee, once paid, will in no circumstances be returned, or held over for a subsequent examination.

* The candidate must write his own name and that of his father or guardian in full, and if an Indian he must write his own name in his vernacular language as well as in English. Candidates are warned that their names are registered for University purposes as written in this application and that they should be careful to insert their full names, correctly spelt, in the first column. Female candidates shall add the word 'Female'.

† Candidates must be careful in entering their age. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he shall have completed the age of fifteen years on or before the first day of the month in which he appears at the examination. Those who can give the exact date of their birth should enter the day of the month on which and the year in which they were born, as well as their actual age on the date of application. Those who are unable to give this information must enter the number of years and the number of calendar months they completed on the date of application.

‡ Candidates are warned to give such a complete address as would ensure any communication by post reaching them without delay.

|| Candidates will be permitted to appear for the examination only at stations where they are known and can be identified, and the place of examination first given cannot, in any circumstances, be changed after registration.

The Matriculation examination will be held at the following places in 1917 :—
