GOVT OF MADRAS

Madras; 6th November 1917

The Secretary to Government,

Fort St. George,
MADRAS.

Sir,

T.

With reference to your G.O.No.407 dated the 12th December'16, and the interview the undersigned had with you on Wednesday last, we beg to address you again on the subject of the price of the Lawrence Asylum Press Almanack and Directory for 1918. We should like to point out that the cost of materials instead of decreasing or remaining stationary has increased enormously during the last 12 months, and we therefore request you to be good enough to continue the enhanced rate of Rs.7/- per copy subject to a minimum of 400 copies being taken.

We have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Subject:- Lawrence Asylum Press Almanac.

For the A.S.

P

Please see the portions sidelined in blue chalk on pages 8 to 10 of notes to G.O. 2183 Rev., dated 19-7-17. The question of reducing the number of copies of the Lawrence Asylum Press Almanac raised therein is one for consideration in the Home (Mis.) Department and it may therefore be remitted to that department for disposal.

T.H.R.

Perhaps Home will be good enough to consider with reference to next year's supply.

G.O. 407 / 12-12-16 T

The Government are now purchasing from the Madras Times printing and publishing company 401 copies of the Lawrence Asylum Press Almanac at a cost of Rs.7/- each. This rate is tenable for the 1917 edition only and it is left to the publishers to demand a higher price for the 1918 edition. If the Government decide to reduce the number of copies they subscribe for below 400, it is likely that the publishers will demand a higher price. The Finl. Department suggest that the question of reducing the number of copies of 1918 edition may be examined with a view to effecting some savings in the annual expenditure.

D

2. The distribution of the ~~405~~ copies will be found in the appendix to G.O. No.157 Public dated 3-2-15. It will be seen that the Chief Secretariat is getting 18 copies, the distribution of which as given in page 9 of G.O. No.114 Finl., dated 23-2-17, is not very clear. His Britannic Majesty's Consul at Pondicherry and Karikal is already getting a copy and it is not known why he is given another. Submitted that this supply may be stopped. The Home Department, Secretariat will require at least 5 copies as per details noted in the margin, & these are now being supplied, ~~against 4 copies which are said to be supplied to it at present. The copy now designed for the Secretary to Government, Educational & Legislative Departments may be set off against the extra copy required~~.

3. As regards the heads of departments under the administrative control of Home (Mis.), it is submitted that only the P.S.G. (2 copies), and H.B.M's Consul at Pondicherry (1 copy) receive the book and it is not possible to reduce the number of copies supplied to them.

pp 19 & 21 of G.O. 157 / 3-2-15 D

4. Departments of the Secretariat may be requested to examine the feasibility of reducing the number of copies supplied to them and to the ~~heads of~~ departments under their administrative control. The Chief Secretariat may, in particular, be requested to state whether it will not be possible to ~~cut off~~ discontinue the ten copies of the book kept in reserve in the Secretariat Library.

p 8 of notes to G.O. 407 / 12-12-16 T

P

5. Reference is solicited to the notes on pages 8 to 10 of notes to G.O. 2183 Revenue dated 19-7-17. The Revenue department propose to reduce the number of copies supplied to various offices under that department by 85 (by cutting off the supply to divisional officers etc.). The actual saving involved in this proposal is about Rs.280/-

as noted below:-

401 copies at Rs.7 each. -------	Rs.2,807
316 copies at Rs.8 each. -------	,, 2,528

The Revenue Secretary is doubtful whether it is worthwhile to make this small saving by cutting off the supply of an important reference book as this to divisional officers. The decision on the matter rests however with the Revenue department, to which the question may now be remitted.

3. The number of copies of the Alm subscribed for in 1914 was 308 at Rs 8 pe copy. As the publishers offered to redu the price if a larger number was take the number of copies taken was increase to 400 at Rs 6 per copy; the excess numbe of 92 copies being distributed as follows:–

It will be seen from the above that Dy Collrs in charge of divisions are being supplied with copies of the Almanac only from 1915, while the I.C.S. Divisional officers have been supplied with copies every year except 1914.

4. It is now for consideration whether the supply of the publication to Divl officers (both I.C.S and Dy Collrs) may be discontinued in view of the possible economy that can be effected or whether the supply may be continued in view of the fact that the copy supplied to Divl officers costs only Rs 4 to Govt as

Extract from notes in the main file relating to the question of curtailing the supply of periodicals to District Judges &c.-

Lawrence Asylum Press Almanac Only three District Judges have proposed reductions in the supply of this book. The District Judge, Madura, does not want it at all. The District Judges of Godavari and North Arcot would discontinue the supply to the ~~District~~ Sub Judges at Cocanada and Chittoor respectively, while the District Judge, Tanjore, would discontinue the supply to all the Sub Courts in his district. The reductions proposed may be approved, but it is desirable to have some uniformity in the supply. At present District Courts and permanent Sub Courts get a copy each. If a reduction is to be effected, the supply of copies to headquarter Sub Courts may be stopped or the supply to Sub Courts stopped altogether. The High Court may, it is submitted, be consulted on the point.

This requires orders urgently.

From the notes with G.O. 407 M. of 12·12·16 it will be seen that some concession to the Company in the matter of rates ~~[illegible]~~ ~~to the Compy~~ is to be allowed so long as paper famine continues. The ~~The~~ position has not now changed.

The Chief Secretary was inclined to the view that if there was a prospect of the number of copies being reduced, we might simply offer a rate of Rs 8 per copy without any stipulation as to the number of cop to be taken. The reduction so far ~~[illegible]~~ carried out (which is tabulated in a separate sheet at slip Ⓩ.) effects a substantial reduction in number ~~and so though of slight saving in total cost~~ It is therefore for consideration whether the rate of Rs 8 may be generally accepted the number reduced. This will effect a reduction in total expenditure on this account eventually when the rate falls.

The question of supply to R.D.os is also for final decision. The Rev. Depart in their note on p. 5 supra. seem disposed to stop the supply if the number of copies to be taken enters into the calculation
