Resolution I.

That this conference (a) begs to respectfully express its unswerving loyalty to the British throne and prays for a speedy and successful termination of the Great War and (b) places on record its deep sense of gratitude and thankfulness to the British Cabinet and to the Government of India for (i) having admitted Indians to the Imperial War Conference and to the Commissioned ranks of the Indian Army and for (ii) having promised to admit Indians to the Volunteer Corps and for enlisting Indians to the Indian Defence Force and for recruiting the Telugus to the Army.

tion II.

That this Conference while thanking the Secretary of State and the Government of India for the pronouncement made on the 20th August last, declaring a policy of steady development of self Governing institutions with a view to progressive realisation of responsible Government in India as an integral part of the British Empire and for the gracious visit of the former to study for himself the existing conditions of India, submits that a system on the basis of the schemes suggested by the various Non-Brahmin Conferences held at Coimbatore, Bikkavole, Bezwada, Salem, Pullivendala, Tinnevely and Madras is best suited to India under the present circumstances and conditions of the country.

Put from the Chair and carried unanimously.

Resolution III.

That this Conference is of opinion (a) that any system of reforms which may be introduced into the country which does not make adequate provision for the due representation in the Councils of the Country of the various Non-Brahmin Communities of the Presidency is not only bound to end in failure but will be fraught with danger and possible disaster.

(b) That any reforms in responsible Government will be practically useless and even dangerous unless the Non-Brahmin Communities in this Presidency are given their fair and legitimate share in the public services of the Country. proposed by Mr. A.C. Parthasarathy Naidu. Seconded by Mr.B.N.V. Deva, M.A., Bar-at-Law, Chittoor. Supported by Mohamed Ibrahim and carried unanimously.

tion IV.

Resolution V.

Proposed by Mr. Narayanasawmi Reddi Garu. Seconded by Mr.P.Parthasarathy Rayaningar and carried unanimously.

Resolution VI.

That this Conference appeals to the Non-Brahmin population of the Districts to demonstrate in a practical manner their loyalty to the Crown by co-operating and assisting the Government in the work of recruitment service for Combatant and Non-Combatant and begs to suggest to the Government the advisability of forming non-official Non-Brahmin Committees in every village for recruiting men for the service. tion VII.

That this Conference urges upon the Government of Madras ~~and~~ the absolute necessity, by legislation if necessary for securing the management of all charitable, religious and public institutions in the hands of the Non-Brahmin

Seconded by Mr.S.G. Ranga Ramunujam, B.A., B.L., High Court Vakil.

Supported by Mr. Venkatarayaningar, and carried

3 Resolution VII

From p. 5 of note D.E.O 363 Puh 8.10.3.15 it will be observed that Govt have decided not to undertake any legislation ~~to~~ amend the law governing ~~the~~ religious and charitable endowments before the end of the present war. No action therefore seems to be necessary now.

As regards the appointment of a non-brahmin in trustee for the Kalahasti temple, the Govt. do not seem to have the power of app't. ~~to make the appointment of a non-brahmin in trustee under Act XX of 1863.~~ No action seems therefore to be called for.
