The S.S. "Ilukuzi" left Natal on 28 February 1918 with returned emigrants for Madras and Calcutta and arrived here on the afternoon of the 20th instant. Five hundred and thirty seven emigrants equivalent to 455 adults were put on board at Durban for Madras. Two deaths occurred during the voyage.

2. The usual inspection of the emigrants was made by me and they had no complaints to make as to the treatment they had received in the Colony and during the voyage.

3. There were 9 invalids among the returned emigrants, of these one died during the voyage and another was sent to the Ophthalmic hospital. The rest as well as the paupers among the healthy were sent to their respective homes at the expense of the Colony. There were two lepers among the returned emigrants and they were kept segregated from others.

4. The number of Statute adults for Calcutta was 102. The vessel as measured at Madras can accommodate 561 adults and the number of Statute adults carried by her was within her carrying capacity.

5. The arrangements made in the vessel for the comfort of the emigrants were satisfactory.

6. The emigrants who had deposited their savings in the Colony refused to receive payment at the rate of exchange prevailing here viz 1 shilling 5 pence per rupee. I explained to some of the leading men among them that under the rules their deposits had to be paid only at the rate ruling in the market but they were stubborn. At the close of the day one and all consented to receive payment. As about Rs 63,000 had to be disbursed they were accommodated in the shed during the night under proper police supervision and paid on the following day.
