Letter—from A. Ff. MARTIN, Esq., Director of the Labour Department, United Planters Association of Southern India (Incorporated), Bangalore.
To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Miscellaneous) Department.
Dated—the 10th April 1918.

[Reference—G.O. No. 101, Judicial of 12th January 1916 and G.O. No. 1074, Home (Miscellaneous) of 21st September 1917.]

I have the honour to inform you that Magistrates issuing warrants governed by the above Government orders for service in the Mysore State, have hitherto addressed the warrants to the Mysore State Magistrate in whose jurisdiction the defaulter is said to reside, and have remitted the dieting fees levied in Mysore State for the service of warrants, direct to that Magistrate, endorsing on the face of the warrant the date on which the dieting fees were remitted.

The Government of His Highness the Maharajah of Mysore have recently passed an order which follows the abovementioned Government orders of the Government of Madras, in which it is laid down that warrants shall be addressed to the District Superintendent of Police concerned and sent through the officers of this department.

I have further the honour to inform you that we have experienced difficulty and delays in getting dieting fees refunded or transferred from one Mysore Court to another, when the defaulter has changed his residence, these delays causing the period allowed for the service of warrants to lapse, and having to get them renewed entails extra work for all concerned.

In order to save time and facilitate business, I have the honour to request that Magistrates in the Madras Presidency may be instructed when issuing warrants to which the two Government orders quoted above apply, for service in the Mysore State

- (1) To address them to the District Superintendent of Police concerned.
- (2) To send them to the Superintendent of the Labour Department, United Planters Association of Southern India, Incorporated, Mysore.

No. 419, HOME (MISCELLANEOUS), 4TH MAY 1918

(3) To remit the dieting fees to the Superintendent of the Labour Department entering the date of remittance on the face of the warrant.

The Superintendent of the department, on locating the warrantee, will then pay the dieting fees to the proper Court and follow the procedure already laid down.

Order—No. 419, Home (Miscellaneous), dated 4th May 1918.

In partial modification of the orders in paragraphs 2 and 4 of G.O. No. 1074, Home (Miscellaneous), dated the 21st September 1917, the Government approve the procedure suggested by the Director of the Labour Department of the United Planters Association of Southern India, Bangalore, in his letter read above. The Magistrates concerned are requested to adopt the procedure in future in issuing warrants of arrest for service in the Mysore State under the Madras Planters Labour Act, 1903, and the Workman's Breach of Contract Act, 1859.

From the Director of the Labour Department, United Planters' Association of Southern India, Bangalore, dated the 10th April 1918.

Instructions (1) and (2) proposed by the Director of the Labour Department of the United Planters' Association of Southern India, Bangalore, follow the procedure already laid down in paragraph 2 of G.O. No. 1074, Home (Miscellaneous), dated the 21st September 1917, with the exception that it is proposed that the warrants should be sent to the Superintendent of the Labour Department instead of to the Director of the department. Under paragraph 4 of the same Government Order the dieting fees have to be forwarded to the court in whose jurisdiction the defaulter is, but there appears to be no objection to the proposal of the Director to remit the dieting fees to the Superintendent of the Labour Department being approved.
