To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Miscellaneous) Department.

Ootacamund.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit herewith, duly verified, the declaration for a passport of A.A.Lucas, a British born subject and Indian Christian of Tirukkoyilur in South Arcot district for going to Edinburg to prosecute his studies in medicine. G.O.No. 431 dated 9-5-18 lays down that passports to leave the country for whatever destination should be refused except on evidence that the journey is undertaken in the national interest or for an object of cogent private necessity. As prosecution of studies appears to fall under the latter category, the passport applied applied for may be granted and sent to the marginally given address.

2. The copies of certificates granted to the applicant by Messrs J.E.Hoffman, Jungerson &c. together with the Treasury chalan for remittance of one rupee into the Government treasury and two unmounted photographs of the applicant accompany.

Dated Jan. 8th 1918.

Mr. Amos Lucas L.M.P. (Madras) was trained in the London Mission Medical School, Jammalamadugu obtaining his diploma in 1914, after a 4½ years course. In 1916 he passed the final examination of the Madras Sub-assistant Surgeon grade, and was duly registered as a L.M.P.

During his whole course he was studious and bore a very good character.

His capacity and ability are above the average. I sincerely wish him every success in the future and can confidently recommend him to any position for which his professional qualifications render him eligible.

Sir,

I am an applicant for a passport to proceed to Edinburgh Scotland for the purpose of studying medicine. I wanted to proceed by the Mediterranean route if possible. Since I am given to understand that that route is disallowed both from your office and from my agent in Bombay, I most respectfully request you to change the route from Mediterranean to the Cape of Good Hope route.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

(a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.

(b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to :—

(a) Natural-born British Subjects.

(b) Wives and widows of such persons.

(c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.

(d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad : such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

To The Honourable the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras Otacamund.

Sir,

I have sent an application to the District Magistrate of South Arcot on the 22nd of May for the grant of a passport to proceed to Edinburgh for the purpose of studying Medicine in the University there. The Stationary Sub-Magistrate of Tirukoilur S. Arcot has seen me personally according to orders and enquired and personally recommended for the grant of a passport. I am due at Edinburgh by the middle of September to join College in October. But as yet no passport has been granted or any intimation to the contrary. I made enquiries at the office of the Collector of Madras since he was deputed to grant passports when the Government of Madras was staying at Otacamund.

and I was directed to apply to you and to the Collector of South arcot for information and accordingly I am doing.

Therefore Sir, I most humbly petition to you to grant me a passport so as to enable me to arrange for the booking of my passage to Scotland round the Cape of Good Hope in time to join the College at Edinburgh.

I have the Honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
Amos Aaron Lucas.
