We had a precedent refused I think.
H. B.

The case in which a passport was refused is that of Mr. E. Ramam Menon who applied for a passport to go to the United States of America for the study of comparative religion and Unitarian Theology. Please see G.O. 534 of 29.6.18 and the notes thereto. It will be seen that a passport was refused because the S. M.'s recommendation was not strong and because it was considered that America ^{is} ~~was~~ not a suitable place for Indians now, though it was observed that under the rules there ~~was~~ ^{is} no objection to the issue of a passport.

A passport was issued to Mr. A. V. Radhakrishna for proceeding to England to appear for the M. R. C. S. Examination London and to enter the S. M. S. vide G.O. 520-21 of 20.6.18. It is for orders whether a passport will be given to Mr. Dakshinamurti Sistala who is a Govt. Scholarship holder. It will be seen from G.O. 786 Vol 3 17. 6. 18 that the Scholarship has been sanctioned for the current year. The Collector wants to know urgently whether the candidate will be granted a passport, to enable the Asst. Genl. to arrange for a passage to England. An additional copy of his photograph has been telegraphed for vide telegram on page 3 C.F.

The point in Dns² letter is — whether whether a passport will be issued — but whether one with permission to travel via France will be issued.

Please look up the rules;
I think one can be if the applicant is cautioned not to stay anywhere in France & if he gets the visa of the French consul in Madras. See if there are other restrictions

30/7/18

Please see para 2(ii) of India's letter recorded in G.O. No 1847 of 18.12.15, and para 3 of Foreign Dept. letter recorded in G.O. 1186 of 19-6-16. If journey via France may be permitted, a note may be recorded on the passport that it only authorises the journey through France via Marseilles and not residence in France. In regard to the ~~visa~~ French visa on passport, it will be seen that the French Govt. have exempted British subjects from the formality of obtaining the visa of the Consul in the country in which they reside, in cases of well-established urgency. Order. G.O. 1145 of 6-11-17. No special restrictions exist regarding the issuing of passports of Indians travelling through France. There are no other orders on the ~~Subject~~ Subject. It is for orders whether as a special ~~case~~ case, journey via France may be permitted. Draft telegram as amplified is for approval.

S. I don't think any special case is made out for Grant of a p.p. to travel through France.

In the case of most students we allow passage via France, interdicting residence therein. And frequently we sanction 1/4 day only fare too.
