From,

E. S. Sivaramalingam Pillai
Manager "Sree Lokamatha"
Punalur.

Honoured Sir,

The petitioner begs to bring to your kind notice that he, the manager of "Sree Lokamatha" office, has sent to you a copy of 'Sree Lokamatha', a monthly journal per V. P. D. for Rs 1-9-0, the subscription for one year at the instance of M. R. Ry M. B. Krishna Chettigar, Inamdar Palakodu, Union Chairman, and President Bench Civil Court.

The journal aims to encourage the study of the Tamil language and to aid the spread of knowledge.

Therefore, he requests the Government to encourage the undertaking by subscribing for it.

Rest

The copy sent by U. P. P. having been refused it seems unnecessary to ask the Editor of the Journal to send a copy for perusal. A Tamil monthly journal is hardly likely to interest the Govt. and it has been ascertained from the State ment of newspapers & accompanying the latest memorandum for newspapers submitted by the C. P. D. that this particular journal has not even been included in that State ment.

A draft order declining to subscribe for the Journal is subd.
