The duty of sending spare copies of confdl G.Os. to the India office does not appear to have been definitely fixed on any particular clerk in the ~~[illegible] Home depts. days~~ older days days and to this must be attributed the complaints received about the non-despatch of the copies of certain confdl. g.os in 1916. This duty is now performed by the Despatcher in the Home Deptt. and similar complaints are not likely to arise in the future.

2// As regards the wrong entries in the tabling abstracts of the two g.os referred to at B in the notes at page 2 ante it is impossible to say who was responsible in the absence of the original tabling abstracts slips. ~~one of the originals of the g.os which are reported to be not forthcoming & one is an A Section paper and the other of the B Section~~

The original of one of the g.os (g.o. 1320 C) 20-5-16) is reported to be not forth-coming and ~~the from the other [illegible]~~ the other one was drafted by Mr Thuljaram Rao and presumably he was the writer of the tabling slip. The first ~~one~~ is a ~~A~~ B Section paper + the second of the A Section.
