No. 289 M/18.

Station Ootacamund, Dated the 27th August 1918

From (Name) A. R. CUMMING, Esq., I.C.S.,
(Designation) District Magistrate of the Nilgiris.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Miscellaneous) Department.

Stonehouse Hill.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit for the orders of Government an application from Mr. J.D.Cosens for the grant of a passport to enable him to travel to London.

2. Mr. Cosens has informed me that his father died about 18 months and his mother about 8 months ago, that he is one of the executors under his father's will and sole executor under his mother's will, that so far as he can gather from letters from his lawyers both the estates, but particularly his mother's, are being wrongly administered and that he therefore wishes to go home to try and set things right.

3. The object of the journey proposed may, I think, be considered to be one of cogent private necessity and I therefore recommend the grant of a passport to Mr. Cosens.

4. Mr. Cosens was registered in this district under the Registration Ordinance, 1917, on 1st March 1917. He is now, however, 51 years and 2 months old.

5. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant are enclosed. The declaration and the photos have been verified by me and the fee of rupee one has been recovered from him.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for District Magistrate.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to :—

- (a) Natural-born British Subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad : such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.
