If a passport is to be granted it should be sent soon as he wants to go before the end of this month. The applicant learnt dyeing in Japan and has since been in the Madras Mills and in the Tata Institute. Dr Marsden knows him well and guarantees his character. The point about which I am doubtful is whether it is desirable to assist the Japanese to win their competition with Indian firms (though this is starting as an Indian firm) [illegible] it will be absorbed by the Japanese

It is for orders whether the ~~the~~ object of the journey may be considered to be of cogent private necessity, as the applicant goes as an assistant to Mr. A. R. Ranga Achari, who has already been granted a passport for proceeding to Japan and the U. S. A. In regard to his character, the D.M. remarks "Dr. Marsden knows him well and guarantees his character". The D.M. adds that the only point about which he is doubtful is whether it is desirable to assist the Japanese in the competition with Indian firms.
