2. The Business World is an English monthly journal devoted to commercial and industrial topics. It has a circulation of 250 copies and its tone is unobjectionable.

3. K. Kuppuswami Ayyangar, the proprietor, editor and publisher, aged about 28 years, is the eldest son of Krishnaswami Ayyangar, Village Munsif of Kambainattan Village, Tanjore district, who has lands worth about Rs. 20,000. Kuppuswami Ayyangar came to Madras about eight years ago, and was an Insurance Agent for a time and then started a firm called the Standard Adjustment Company, of which he is still the managing proprietor. Nothing is known against him.

perhaps explains the shortage in circulation Subd. for orders whether we request of the Editor to be furnished with all papers placed on E.T. should be complied with. In the case disposed of in E.T. no 1048-9 of 12.9.17 the Editor of the "merchants friend" ~~was~~ was furnished only with papers ~~related~~ relating to 'Industries', 'Trade', and 'Agriculture', and 'Co-operation'.

The circulation of the paper is limited

I do not think that the circulation of this monthly journal is such as to justify its administration to E. T. privileges especially as on grounds of economy of paper we are scrutinising and curtailing such privileges.

2. It is for Rev. to decide if ~~particular~~ copies of particular orders bearing on Commerce or domestic may be furnished

I agree. The magazine may not have a large circulation at present, but it is the kind of publication that from the standpoint of local business & industries deserve to be given every chance & if the Grant of Govt.
 papers relating to them special subjects will assist towards the end I would sanction the grant.
