G.O. No. 728, Public, dated 5th July 1911.

ABSTRACT.—Recording resolution of the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry, No. 4675-4722-51 (Post Office), dated 26th June 1911, regarding the grant of additional Post Office holidays.

G.O. Nos. 385-86, Home (Miscellaneous), dated 18th April 1918.

ABSTRACT.—Directing the despatch of a reply to the Government of India that this Government are in favour of the proposal to increase to seven the existing six additional Post Office holidays.

II

Resolution of the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry (Post Office), No. 8359, dated Simla, the 19th August 1918.

In the resolution No. 4675-4722-51, dated the 26th June 1911, as modified in the case of the Burma circle by resolution No. 4635-P. & T., dated the 26th April 1917, the Government of India decided which days should ordinarily be observed as additional Post Office holidays, and directed that in all circles, except Madras and Burma for which special lists were drawn up, Id-uz-Zuha should be observed instead of Muharram as it was held to be the more important of the two festivals.

2 It has, however, recently been represented that the tenth day of Muharram should be added to the list, and, after consulting Local Governments and commercial bodies, the Government of India have now decided that, with effect from this year, the tenth day of Muharram shall be added to the list of additional Post Office holidays in all circles.

ORDERED that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to all Local Governments and Administrations, to all Chambers of Commerce and Trades Associations, to all Departments of the Government of India and to the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs.

Ordered also that it be published in the Gazette of India.

Post Office holidays

Resolving resolution of the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industries, No. 8359, dated the 19th August 1918, in which it was decided that the tenth day of Makar Sankranti shall be added to the list of additional public holidays in all offices.

In the resolution No. 4675-4723, dated the 25th June 1911, as modified in the case of the Burma circle by resolution No. 4635-4723, dated the 28th April 1917, the Government of India decided which days should be observed as additional Post Office holidays, and directed that in all offices, except Madras and Bombay, for which special lists were drawn up, the same should be observed instead of Makar Sankranti as it was held to be the more important of the two festivals.

It has, however, recently been represented that the tenth day of Makar Sankranti should be added to the list, and, after consulting local Governments and commercial bodies, the Government of India have now decided that, with effect from this year, the tenth day of Makar Sankranti shall be added to the list of additional Post Office holidays in all offices.

INSTRUCTION FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.

TO PRESS, MADRAS OOTY.

A Please send proof in duplicate. The papers have been carefully edited. Referencer. Clerk. Supdt.	B Proof returned corrected. Please strike off and send number of copies as indicated. Type may be released after usual interval at once. Referencer. Clerk. Supdt.	C As the matter is clear manuscript and has been carefully edited, (b) proof need not be sent. Please print and supply number of copies as indicated. Type may be released after usual interval. Referencer. Clerk. Supdt.
