The D.M. reports that he cannot certify to cogent private necessity. The applicant wants to go to Bangkok to relieve his brother now in charge of a cloth shop owned by them both. The object of the journey would therefore appear to be on grounds of legitimate livlihood. The applicant is ~~apparently~~ a Muhammadan. India have issued instructions recently against the grant of passports to the Far East to undesirable Muhammadans. vide Copy of Memo. at H. The arrangement is to manage the shop by turns, each brother going out in turn. It is case of legitimate livelihood and a passport is permissible. The only doubt is as to the advisability of a Muhammadan being allowed to proceed to Siam. I do not see much objection; nor does it appear necessary to call for a report from the Dm.
