Telegram from the Post Master Genl. Madras, 3/12/17

Regd Please see the telegram from the P. M. G. in the Cf. Information is not available in the office whether the moon was ^{actually} visible on the 6th or not. But it will be observed from the list of proposed holidays sent by the Dy. Director, Madras Observatory, and the Chairman, Chamber of Commerce ^{for this year} when the list of holidays ^{was issued} in Dec^r. last, that they both suggested that the 17th should be observed as the holiday for Bakrid. But the Govt. fixed the 16th as the Bombay and Bengal Govts. reported that they were notifying the 16th as the holiday for Bakrid.

It is understood from some Muhammadan employees in the Secretariat here that the question whether the 16th or the 17th should be observed as the Bakrid day in Ootacamund will be settled in their Jamat meeting which will be held tomorrow (Friday) when the local Khazi will be present.

We have no definite information sofar; nor any request from Muhammadans offered for changing the date of holiday from the 16th to 17th. There is now hardly time to change the date. We have before declined to do so at the last moment. We may wire to the P. M. G. that the Govt. do not propose to alter the date.

Really the ceremony falls on the 17th we must be prepared to permit Muhammadans to stop away that day.
Let the memo & the telegram come.
On receipt of replies I shall consider if it be necessary to change the public holiday

The collector of Madras has telegraphed that the Bakrid Kurbha falls on Tuesday the 17th inst. The reply from the Collector of the Nilgiris has not yet been received. (Please see the telephonic message from the Tarishader at Ship P.

The Muhammadan servants of Govt have, under the orders issued with G.O. no. 774 of 4.7.1914, in any case a holiday on the 17th instant as they have a holiday in addition to that notified under the Negotiable Instruments Act. (vide appendix to the above G.O.) The point for orders is whether the 17th inst should be notified as a holiday
