from the Embarkation Staff Officer, Southern Brigade, Madras, to Mrs. Annie Hoare,

The attached correspondence is forwarded for your information and necessary action with reference to your application for a passage for yourself and one child to England.

It will be seen from the attached correspondence that Government are prepared to grant you permission to proceed to England should you desire to do so, and in the event you should make an immediate application to the Honorary Secretary of the Imperial Indian Relief Fund, Madras Branch, for the grant of passage money and any subsistence allowance you may require.

Will you kindly inform me if you will avail yourself of this opportunity.
