R.O.C. No. 769/18.

Station Trivandrum

Dated the 15th July 1918

From (Name) H.L.Braidwood Esquire, I.C.S.,

(Designation) The Resident in Travancore & Cochin.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Political Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose two photographs and an application from M.N.Krishna Pillay for a passport to travel to Basrah. The applicant has been declared by the Travancore Darbar to be of good character and a subject of the State. He states that he has been offered a clerkship in the Anglo-Persian Oil Company at Mohammerah and produces the enclosed copy of a letter from a friend at that place giving the name of a man (P.V.Nair) who promises to accommodate the applicant on arrival at Basrah.

2. With reference to G.O.No.77 Home (Miscellaneous) dated 1st February 1918, I request that a passport may be issued should there be no objection.

3. The fee of rupee one will be credited in the accounts of my treasury on receipt of the passport.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. P. V. Nair

Resident,

Mahomerah,

23rd April 1918.

C/o Lynch Brothers, Limited.

My dear Krishna Pillai,

I am in receipt of your kind favour and thank you very much for the same. I could not understand why the British Resident is hesitating to issue a Passport while you have got an order to produce A.P.O.C. is considered as good as a Govt. Concern and all the employees of that Company are given almost all the privileges of a Government servant. You know very well that I am not a resident of Buserah but since you require an address of one of my friends there I shall give you the name of one man at foot who will give you every accommodation there, as soon as you reach the place. No passport or anything of that sort is required to come to Mohemmerah from Buserah. If you can not get the Passport even after producing the Company's order, better come over to Bombay immediately and present before Messrs. Shaw Wallace & Co., who will make every arrangements to get you a passport and sent you up here. So hurry up. I am expecting you here as early as possible. Wire to me as soon as you reach Bombay.

Kunjukrishnan arrived here safe and he will be writing to you all about his voyage. But dont waste your time there by waiting for letters. I am doing well. Hope the same with you all. Nothing more to add at present.

Your ever sincerely,

The address as required is
Mr. P. V. Nair, C/o Eastern Bank, Ltd.,

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

- (a) Natural-born British Subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British Subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad: such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English, a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.
