P.A. No. 1535 of 18

Station Tinnevely., Dated the 21st September 1918.

From (Name) S.W.G.I. MacIver Esquire, I.C.S.

(Designation) District Magistrate, Tinnevely.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Miscellaneous) Department.

Sir,

Cotlacamund

I have the honour to submit herewith an application for a pass port received from the Rev. Ll.G.S.Price - Correspondent, Church Mission Society, Palamcottah, for a journey to England, accompanied by his wife Mrs. Price on or after the 5th proximo. The application has been duly verified by a Special Magistrate and the prescribed fee of one rupee was paid into the treasury on the 7th instant. Small unmounted photos in duplicate of the applicant and his wife are also enclosed.

2. The applicant did not come within the scope of the Registration Ordinance I of 1917, as he was over 50 years -- old on the first day of February 1917. He says that he is going going on furlough to England that his wife is going as an attendant on Mrs. Walker of Ootacamund who is leaving for England as an invalid and that they propose to travel together. I recommend the grant of the pass-port.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. A. L. M. A. C.

in my opinion the only

~~D.O.~~ This is to certify that I have been consulted regarding the health of Mrs. J. Walker. I am of opinion that she is suffering from Melancholia with delusions, that her condition is aggravated by the climate of India, & is rapidly growing worse. & that the only hope of recovery lies in her immediate transfer to England by the shortest route. If her transfer to England is delayed, I consider her chances of recovery will be lost & a fatal issue probable.

Dear Mr. Davidson

I had a letter written in reply to Mr. H. P. on Friday night. But did not send it as I thought it was a public holiday on Saturday. Since then Mr. Barker felt that Mr. Barker would not like to go via the Mediterranean, so I have written to Mrs. E. H. who had previously volunteered to go, to find out if she is of the same mind. She had her own passport examined by Mr. Brackenbury (his time limit had nearly expired) I will write to her at once, to send it on from Nalafiri.

The second attendant is Mr. (Edu) Scott Price. His application for a passport was sent by the Magistrate of Palamuttu. Sincerely. If you receive it, will you Very kindly get it passed as soon as possible. She is travelling with her husband Mrs. M. Scott Price who is proceeding to England as soon as possible in family affairs.

Very many thanks for having so promptly arranged for the sanction.

Yours faithfully

Please see the D.O. from Miss Hopwood on pages 11-12 ante. As Miss Barker is not prepared to go via the Mediterranean, the passport application of Miss E. Naish who is said to have volunteered to go may be awaited.

2. The second attendant is reported to be Mrs. Scott Price of Palamcottah. Rev. M. G.S. Price recently enquired whether himself and his wife ^{would} be given passports to proceed to England. He was informed ^{that} a passport for himself ^{would} be granted, but that there were not sufficient grounds for the grant of a passport to Mrs. Price. Vide. Encl. 1947-2 of 25.7.18.

Miss Hopwood says that Mrs. Price's passport application was sent by the D.M. Timewell. As it is likely that the application may go to the Collector of Madras, the latter may be asked by wire to forward it to Govt. if he receives it. The following telegram is accordingly for approval.
