Resolution

Reference. No. 1442, dated 10th September 1918.

The Board begs to bring to the notice of Government that the expression "Waste lands" given as one of the subject prescribed in Appendix A to G.O.No.312 Mis. (Home Department) dated 28th March 1917, on which it has to furnish a summary for incorporation in the Presidency Administration report is somewhat misleading, as the information now being furnished under that head relates solely to the wastes remitted and charged within the raiyats' holdings. In the Board's opinion the better expression to be used would be "Fallows - or Uncultivated areas in holdings" and it accordingly recommends that that if the Government see no objection this expression may be adopted and necessary amendments issued to the G.O. under reference.

P. Narayanamurti

Ag. Secretary.

To the Secretary to Government, Home Department.

(Lt No 2571)

Pres. Adm. Report.

From the Board of Rev. & 10.7.18

The expression "waste lands" occurs not only in Appendix A to G.O. 312

& 28.3.17, but also in Appendix B vide pages 2 and 5 of the G.O.

The Board recommends that the expression in Appendix A may be altered to "Fallows - or Incultivated areas in holdings".

It is for Subd. that Revenue Dept. may be consulted whether the alteration ^(may be accepted & whether similar alteration) should not be made in Appendix B also.
