Memorandum of the Government of India in the Foreign and Political Department, No. 1941 G., dated Simla, the 19th October 1918.

It has come to the knowledge of the Government of India that several ladies and children from India recently travelled to England on board a Japanese steamer which left Colombo in May last for the United Kingdom via the Cape of Good Hope.

2. According to Admiralty rules, women and children are not allowed to travel through danger zones except in ships specially authorized by the Admiralty to carry them and such authorization is given only in the case of British ships properly escorted.
