To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Miscellaneous) Department.
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward for the orders of Government an application from Mrs. Hensley wife of Canon Hensley for a passport to enable her to travel to England together with a letter in original in which she sets forth the grounds for her application.

Pp 3-4 infra

2. The application has been verified by me and the prescribed fee of Rupee one recovered.

3. It is for the consideration of Government whether, with reference to the instructions of the Government of India communicated with G.O.No. 431, Home (Miscellaneous), dated 9th May 1918, the grounds urged by Mrs. Hensley are sufficient to warrant the issue of a passport. In my opinion they are not

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Albion

District Magistrate.

DESPATCHED

16 OCT 1918

at Farley, Cobacarnand.

October 15th 1918.

Dear Sir,

I am herewith sending a form of application for a passage to England on the ground of urgent private affairs. My mother, a widow, 78 years of age, is failing fast in health. I am her only child and am urgently needed to be with her, especially on account of her illness & also on account of legal matters. The last English mail brought me three letters from her urging me to go to her. I have been away from her for 25 years & now that she is so urgently needing me, I feel I ought to be with her. Her only sister, with whom she has made her home for 25 years, died last year & she has now no near relations who could in any way take my place.

I am prepared to go to England by any route that is open to me to travel.

Believe me

Yours truly,

Harold Newley.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to :—

- (a) Natural-born British Subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad : such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.
