Memorandum—from the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign and Political Department.

To—the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Dated—Simla; the 28th October 1918.

No.—2015-G.

My Memorandum No. 752-G., dated 5th June 1918. Passports for women and children. The American passport authorities urge strongly that women and children should be discouraged from attempting to travel to the United Kingdom via the Atlantic. Not only are the dangers attending this journey great, passages are so scarce that travellers from India to England are likely to be detained for several weeks in America under most expensive conditions.

2. Applicants for passports to the United Kingdom via the Atlantic should be discouraged accordingly, and passports only given in most exceptional cases.
