PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to :—

- (a) Natural-born British Subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British Subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad. Such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English, a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

Passport to Miss A. J. Askwith to travel to England via the Mediterranean.

[C. 3319] From the D. R. Timmesly of 11. 11. 1918.

Miss Jane Askwith applies for a passport to proceed to England via, the Mediterranean. Reference is in this connection solicited to G.O. No. 524, Home (this), of 21. 6. 18, from which it will appear that women should not be allowed to travel via the Mediterranean except in cases of life and death. From the *Medical Certificate produced by the applicant, it does not appear that the ~~present~~ case is of such an urgent nature as to justify the grant of a passport for journey via the Mediterranean. It is for orders whether the applicant may be informed that a passport cannot be issued to her for journey via the Mediterranean, but that her case will be considered if she is prepared to travel ~~via~~ ^{by} the route for the time being permissible under Admiralty instructions. Vide G.O. No. 285 Home (this) of 20. 3. 1918.

The Public Dept may be consulted.

I know Miss A. Smith's case is a very urgent one and under present conditions I think we may ignore distinction of miles. I would give her a permit to travel by any route
she pleases.

For cases whether this and similar cases may be disposed of accordingly without troubling H.C.
