The Indian Patriot:—Everyman's Review (for Oct. '18) is as usual making headway. We are glad our contemporary keeps a high standard of literary excellence.

Prof. P. Seshadri, M.A.—I have been reading your Review regularly with great interest.

Mr. Har Bilas Sarda, The Rajput Historian, Ajmer:—I have read with pleasure some of the excellent articles in your Journal.

The Gujarati Punch:—The articles are well chosen * * A major portion of the Magazine is devoted to educational topics which is as it should be, for the problem of education is by far the most important in India at the present time.

A Headmaster:— * Will you kindly enroll me as a subscriber to your monthly magazine, Everyman's Review, which richly deserves the title under which it appears?

EVERYMAN'S REVIEW

A HIGH CLASS ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY.

Editor: A. S. Ramaiah.

Published by The Kanara Press, Madras.

Some Opinions.

New India:— * The articles are quite spirited and interesting. Everyman's Review has every reason to be called a National Journal.

The Hindu:— * * The articles are written in a dignified and vigorous style. The Review is well printed.

The Madras Mail:—Indian Journalistic ventures are so very much of a sameness, that it is a relief to come across a journal that is, if only a little, out of the run. * Everyman's Review is distinctly a new departure in Indian journalism and one in the right direction.

* * * The Journal is largely devoted to Educational topics, though politics, of the Congress variety, find some place in it. But it is the literary section that is most interesting.

Principal J. H. Cousins, M.A.—"An excellent Journal."

The Rangoon Mail:—Every one of the articles has been written in the most interesting and instructive manner. In a word, this issue as usual contains a mine of very useful information. The advocacy for Home Rule is very strong.

The Hon. Mr. B. V. Narasimha Iyer:—Everyman's Review seems to be really the Review for every man. All varieties of tastes are catered for in its pages. The busy politician or the man of business who has no time to go through every paper or to notice sometimes the most important events of the month will in a few minutes obtain that information from this Review—The student will find much to interest him in its record of the remarkable advance that is made from time to time in science, theoretical and applied.

The Commonweal:— * * Has some good topics on the times and should have by now a good list of subscribers, if merit is rewarded as it should be in this world.

Editors' Table privileges are granted only to such papers as have an established circulation and are moderate in tone. (vide page 2 of the notes to G.O. 1395 of 16.12.1911) The 'Everyman's Review' is stated to have only a circulation of 100 copies. From the remarks column on page 38 of the statement appended to the C. I. D. Memorandum on Newspapers it is observed that the tone of the journal is at times objectionable. The journal appears to have had three changes of Editors during the short period of its existence. The present Editor of the journal, the Proprietor, Kanara Press, received a warning quite recently (vide pages 6-7 of the notes to G.O. no. 375 of 4.5.18).

In these circumstances the request of the Proprietor for being admitted to E.T. privileges may be refused. A draft order is subd.
