Rep. 19-11-18

Home Department.
Simla, the 15th November 1918.

Dear Mr. Todhunter,

It is possible that in the course of the forthcoming tour of the Reforms Committees the question of the appropriate precedence to be assigned to the chairmen and members at official entertainments and other public functions may arise. I am therefore desirous to inform you that the Government of India consider that on such occasions Lord Southbrough should be treated as if he ranked in article 6 of the Warrant of Precedence and Mr. Feetham in article 13 but above Mr. Gillman who also ranks in that article; and that all the other members official and non-official, of both Committees should be treated as if they were in article 20.

Yours sincerely,

K. Sloan

To

The Hon. Mr. C.G. Todhunter,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.
