Sir,

In submitting herewith my application for a Passport to travel to Europe I beg to explain that it is over six years since my last visit to Europe which I think is sufficient reason ⁱⁿ itself, but I also attach a medical certificate. I shall be glad if you will kindly send the application to Government and request that the passport be granted with the least possible delay, as I am anxious to get away by the first steamer by which I can secure a berth.

I have the honor to be,

Dear Sir,

I thank you for sending the Passport of Mr: H.M. Spencer, but I have to return it to you for making an alteration. It is not sure that the steamer by which he is travelling is a mail boat. Kindly, therefore, add "or other" after the word "Mail" reading "Mail or other steamer". Please also strike off Macede and write Maude instead, reading Herbert Maude Spencer. Kindly excuse for troubling you again.
