My dear Madam,
I am today forwarding officially an application for a passport on behalf of Mr.
Stoss of Trivandrum.
In it I mentioned that further particulars were being furnished by D.O.

The particulars are as follows:- Stoss has put in 6 years continuous service and was due furlough a year ago but was unable to take it owing to the war.
He proposes to go on leave from about next May after completing the work of the College for the year & his work as an Examiner

For the Madras University.
In the ordinary course his wife would have waited to go with him, but she is expecting to be confined (for the first time) about April next.
It will not be advisable for her to await this event in India, as she is somewhat run down in health after 5 years continuous residence on the West coast.

Also it would be impossible for her to travel so far with a young infant & she would have to wait till the next year (1920) to go home, which would be bad for her health and would delay her husband in taking furlough which he badly needs.

It is therefore highly desirable for her to go home before the event and as it would obviously be dangerous for her to travel later on, it is necessary that she should start early in January. ³ It will doubtless benefit her health very much and enable her to face the event with much greater safety if she is able to reach home and spend 3 months beforehand in the salubrious climate of her native place, which happens to be the well known health resort of Buxton in Derbyshire, where her mother is living now and will be able to look after her.

I therefore think that a very strong case is made out for the grant of a passport and I trust that the Government will see no objection to granting it. I have not thought it necessary to forward a medical certificate, as the facts have Passport to Mrs Sloss to England Home (Mis) Dept.

Please see the D.O. letter from the Resident in Travancore and Cochin to the Chief Secretary at page 1-4 ante Mrs H. G. Sloss wants to proceed to England for her confinement. The Resident in Trc has stated that she is weak and that it is highly advisable desirable for her to go home before the event. Perhaps this may be considered as one of cogent private necessity and a passport may be granted to her
