Recorded.

My memorandum No. 739-G, dated 4th June 1918. Wives and families of all British Officers of the British and Indian services now serving in Egypt are permitted to proceed to that country, if they so desire. Applications should be submitted direct to the Quartermaster General in India stating-

- (a) the appointment or unit in which the officer is serving
- (b) number of members of family for whom passage is required
- (c) in the case of a nurse or governess, her name should be stated
- (d) family's address in India.

All information regarding passports and passages will be communicated to applicants by the Quartermaster General in India when permission for them to land in Egypt has been obtained by him and no passport should be issued until grant of such permission has been intimated.
