To I Amintage Esq

Commissioner of Police Madras

Sir

I have the honor to apply for a passport to England, enclosing a required statement of my character by the Rev C. H. Williams, the General Superintendent of my mission.

I may have that if the passport for which I apply is to be of benefit it is important that the passport be granted, if possible, at a very early date.

Sir,

I have the honour to apply for a passport on behalf of the Rev. C. Kingsley Williams of the above mission. The circumstances which make it necessary for Mr Williams to go to England are as follows:-

In Wesley College we have two European professors both of whom are, under our rules, entitled to take furlough at once. Rev. J. E. Neill, the Principal, has served beyond the usual time because his family was unable to travel during the war. His own health has been far more from good as he is suffering with Chronic Colitis, and the health of his son Desmond is very poor. It is necessary that Mr Neill and family should travel to England as soon as possible, but owing to the exigencies of the school year Mr Neill as Principal is prepared to continue in his present post until the school year ends in April. I trust that it will be possible for him to obtain passports and passages for himself and family not later than the month of May. It will be necessary for for the Vice-Principal to take work as acting Principal from the beginning of July. It is therefore felt by the College Council that in the interests of the College work it is very important that Mr. Williams the Vice-Principal should now take a short furlough in England and return in time to resume his duties in the College in July. I therefore earnestly request that a passport may be granted to Mr. Williams so that he may relieve Mr. Neill at the end of the present College year.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made in the prescribed form, printed on the back of these regulations, and submitted either direct or through the local authority—

- (a) in the case of a resident in British India, to the Local Government or Local Administration concerned.
- (b) in the case of a resident in a Native State, to the Agent to the Governor-General or Political Resident concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Re. 1.

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

- (a) Natural-born British Subjects.
- (b) Wives and widows of such persons.
- (c) Persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies or in India.
- (d) Subjects of Native States in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent or Notary Public, resident in India.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British Subject, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

Naturalized British Subjects will be described as such, in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

7. Indian Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed, in India only, for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is Re. 1.

8. Passports cannot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad. Such persons should be told to apply for Passports to the London Foreign Office or nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

9. In the case of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English, a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's vernacular signature in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on the form of application, which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.
